

SPI at UVa: Science Policy Career Panel

April 24, 2017

3:30 pm-5:00 pm

Rm 3110 Claude Moore MEB
(Medical Education Building)

Reception to follow 5-6 pm

Come join us and see what it is like to work in science policy as a Ph.D. scientist or engineer. We will have distinguished guest speakers:

Joel Baumgart, Ph.D. Research Development Program Manager, Office of VP for Research at UVa. Fulbright, AAAS, and Mirzayan fellow alumni. Ph.D. in Neuroscience from UVa.

Robbie Barbero, Ph.D. Former Assistant Director for Biological Innovation at the White House Office of Science and Technology Policy under the Obama administration. Current Chief Business Officer at Ceres Nanosciences, Inc. AAAS Policy Fellow. Ph.D. in Biological Engineering from MIT.

Garrick Louis, Ph.D. Associate Professor in Systems and Information Engineering at UVa. Ph.D. in Engineering and Public Policy from Carnegie Mellon. AAAS Policy Fellow alumni at the Environmental Protection Agency.

Chris Sasiela, Ph.D. Regulatory Specialist at National Heart, Lung, and Blood Institute. Ph.D. in Pharmaceutical Sciences from University of Maryland.

Moderator: Thomas Katsouleas, Ph.D. Exec. Vice President and Provost, UVa

A networking reception will follow from 5 to 6 pm in the Claude Moore Medical Education Building's first floor atrium.

Event sponsored by GESC, hosted by SPI at UVa